A RIOT ON COMPTON HILL.

THE GANG AND SOME COLORED MEN DAMAGE EACH OTHER.

Political, Race and Labor Troubles Cause an Exchange of Macadam—One Man Seriously Hurt and Others Badly Damaged—Windmills Broken and a Neighborhood Alarmed—No Police in the Vicinity.

There was a riot on Compton Hill yesterday. It was a race war. Accounts of the affair differ, but there has been trouble between the negroes of the neighborhood and "the gang" for some time. Several weeks ago a number of teamsters employed by John Lynch, contractor and politician, struck for an increase in wages. Their places were immediately taken by negroes. That intensified the feeling between the negroes and led to a fight two weeks ago between Farrell, one of the Compton Hill gang, and John Pain, leader of the negroes in that section. It was like all the fights in that section—short and bloody. Yesterday afternoon, according to one account, Ben Taylor, who formerly lived in the neighborhood, but now resides on Shenandoah street, Jim Campbell, Willie Cahill, "Cabbage" Kelleher and Jack Lyle were "cannibals" in the alley near Cardinals avenue and Hickory street. Pain passed with a number of his friends. There was an exchange of reversed pleasantries, which resulted in the return of favors.

THE COLORED CONTINGENT.

Taylor accused Taylor of having taken a hand with Farrell in a row two weeks before and Taylor said he had been beaten by the negroes. The two men, white and black, mixed recklessly for a few minutes. Mutual fear of disaster caused a separation between the two, and then instead of mixing again they resorted to long-range warfare. The macadam streets were broken and scattered with great bitterness and profanity if not with certain aim. The negroes had the best of it when they drove the boys away from the place of trouble, and when the fence and the post of the fence was struck on the head by a piece of stone. He was sent over the fence into the yard.

RECEIVING SERIOUS INJURIES.

It was thought that he had broken a bone in his arm when he was carried into the house of Mrs. Clark on Hickory street, near Cardinal avenue, and a physician called. His battered head was dressed and his arm was set, but the extent of his injuries could not be learned without more careful examination. He was sent home in a sedan chair.

His companions got away in safety and joined other members of the gang at the corner of Hickory and Franklin. Reinforcements were Eph Krocwood, Jack Towle, Burnett Kane, Jack O'Toole, "Cabbage" Kelleher, Jack Lyle, and a number of others.

The Presbyterian minister listened to an address by W. G. McDonald on: "The Coming of the Kingdom." The audience was as follows: Rev. Mr. Loring, 96 additions and 26 conversions; Rev. S. Warner, 48 additions and 21 conversions; F. Chayes 11 additions; D. Hueston, 7 additions, and O. D. Hueston, 1 addition.

The latter company arrived at the Compton avenue corner in a few minutes and hostilities were suspended.

KIRKWOOD OPENED THE BATTLE.

With a verbal attack on Pain. While he was in his office, a brick was thrown through the window and struck him in the left side of the head. He fell on the floor, and the air was filled with parts of bricks and macadam.

The gang had lost one battle, but it went into the second with two such vim to avenge its defeat. Kirkwood recovered and was soon on his feet doing his part. He addressed himself to Pain for the most part and at one time when the negroes were on the Hickory street side of Teiman's grocery threw so many stones that he managed to break every pane of glass on that side of the store.

Pain was not missed on every throw, but received so many that he was compelled to leave the store last night, to be seriously hurt.

Buster Lambert was also damaged, but one of the other members of that company was not even slightly injured.

SUNDAY "POST-DISPATCH" BALLOTS.

Votes Must Be Forwarded in Time to Be Counted Before Wednesday.

The SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH election held yesterday for the purpose of determining the favorite candidate for the mayoralty was a grand success. Thousands of ballots have been returned to the POST-DISPATCH office through the United States mails and the numberless evidences of the great interest in the election. Notwithstanding the very clear explanations printed for several days in the POST-DISPATCH, many people have forwarded postal card votes and votes on the outside of the envelope, and these do not count. The only ballot that will receive attention are those which have been sent from the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH of last Sunday, and the voter who sent the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH was entitled to a vote.

Should a diphtheritic or typhoid patient occupy a curtain bed it would go hard with the next occupant.

At the first Presbyterian Church Friday evening a reading and musical will be given.

SUNDAY "POST-DISPATCH" BALLOTS.

Votes Must Be Forwarded in Time to Be Counted Before Wednesday.

The SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH election held yesterday for the purpose of determining the favorite candidate for the mayoralty was a grand success. Thousands of ballots have been returned to the POST-DISPATCH office through the United States mails and the numberless evidences of the great interest in the election. Notwithstanding the very clear explanations printed for several days in the POST-DISPATCH, many people have forwarded postal card votes and votes on the outside of the envelope, and these do not count. ### A LEGISLATIVE SCANDAL.

Charges Against Representative Mitchell of the Colorado Legislature.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.

DENVER, Colo., March 4.—The result of the investigation of Thomas A. Mitchell, member of the Colorado Legislature, is that he is guilty of having made a corrupt bargain in the Senatorial election. The story of the case was published in the Post-Dispatch at the time. The whole subject was discussed at length in a Republican caucus of the House and some pretty wild things were said. It was also mentioned by the Wilsonites that Mitchell refused to vote for Wadsworth, the latter's friends claiming that Mitchell had gone back on his principles and had been induced to do so by the Wilsonites.

It is stated that the people in "Frisco regard the race as a "fake," but in justice to the orators in this statement should be branded for what it is—a malicious lie. Every one who knows Gaudaur will know that he would not "fix" an even by being victor of which he could easily be. The race was the best race in America. The parties making the charges are moved simply by jealousy, and sensible people will pay no attention to them.

THE BOAT RACE YESTERDAY FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP OF AMERICA.

O'Connor Wins It Easly From "Our Jake"—The Charges of Crookedness and Their Value—Mr. Rogers Says Pat Sheedy Will Not Handle O'Connor in Australia—Sporting News and Notes—Ball Gossip.

R. WM. O'CONNOR is still the champion captain of America. The race between him and Jacob G. Gaudaur of this city took place yesterday on the Alameda course at San Francisco, and the Torontos won easily. The dispatcher of the news made by O'Connor was announced as 15:45 for the three miles, the course over which the men rowed was short, and therefore the time will not be counted as a genuine performance.

DOWN ON SHEEDY.

O'Connor's Backer Talks About Sullivan's Ex-Manager.

From the Toronto Mail.

"Sheedy is trying to ring himself in as O'Connor's backer," said Mr. Joseph Rogers of the Mail yesterday, when he was asked if he had heard anything more regarding O'Connor's much talked of trip to Australia with Pat Sheedy as his manager and backer. "Sheedy will be all right as a manager of prize fighters," added Mr. Rogers, "but what about O'Connor?"

Willie Heine of 210 Marion street while running away from the police, who had broken into his house, threatened to shoot his feet and broke his right arm at Second and Marion.

Most of the time that Sheedy was to accompany him to Australia.

He is a native of Ireland, was introduced to O'Connor at the six days' walk in New York after the Teeser race, and in a conversation with the Mail he was asked if he could not make a good manager for O'Connor.

"I am not a backer," he said, "but I am a trial fighter."
